PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The complainant states that Pedro Jimenez-Vazquez is a citizen of a country other than the United States; that said alien has admitted he is deportable; that his testimony is material; that it is impracticable to secure his attendance at trial by subpoena; and that he is a material witness in relation to this criminal charge and should be held or admitted to bail pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3144.

On April 16, 2008, at approximately 4:15 AM, Rosario GONZALEZ AKA: Rosario GONZALEZ-Acosta (Defendant) was awaiting application for admission into the United States from Mexico at the San Ysidro Port of Entry. Defendant was the driver and sole visible occupant of a blue 1984 Mercury Cougar bearing California license plates. A United States Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Canine Enforcement officer was performing pre primary roving operations when his Narcotic/Human Detection Dog (N/HDD) alerted to the blue Mercury Cougar. The Canine officer requested assistance from another CBP officer who approached Defendant and initiated an inspection. Defendant told the officer he was not bringing anything from Mexico and that the vehicle belonged to a friend. The CBP officer conducted a cursory inspection of the vehicle and noticed a non-factory compartment located between the rear seat and trunk of the vehicle. Upon pulling on the rear seat rest of the vehicle, the CBP officer discovered a male concealed within the compartment. The vehicle and its occupants were subsequently escorted to the secondary for further inspection.

In the secondary, CBP officers released a latch securing the back seat rest and assisted the male from the compartment. The male was determined to be a citizen and national of Mexico without entitlements to enter the United States and is now identified as Pedro Jimenez-Vazquez (Material Witness).

During a videotaped interview, Defendant was advised of his Miranda rights. Defendant acknowledged his rights and elected to answer questions without an attorney present. Defendant denied knowledge of the concealed alien. Defendant stated he thought there were narcotics concealed in the vehicle. Defendant admitted he was to be paid $500.00 USD to drive the vehicle into the United States. Defendant admitted he was to deliver the vehicle to San Diego, California.

A videotaped interview was conducted with Material Witness. Material Witness admitted he is a citizen of Mexico without documents to lawfully enter the United States. Material Witness stated he made arrangements with two unknown males in Mexico and was to pay $1,000.00 USD to be smuggled into the United States. Material Witness stated he was going to the United States to seek employment.
